

The Speaker

Dr. Kevin McCauley is a Senior Fellow at The Meadows of Wickenburg, Arizona and Senior Recovery Advisor at Northbound Treatment Services in Orange County, California. He first became interested in the treatment of substance use disorders while serving as a Naval Flight Surgeon where he observed the U.S. Navy's policy of treating addiction as a safety (not moral) issue and returning treated pilots to flight status under careful monitoring.

Dr. Kevin McCauley wrote and directed two films: "Memo to Self" about the concepts of recovery management, and "Pleasure Unwoven" about the neuroscience of addiction which won the 2010 Michael Q. Ford Award for Journalism from the National Association of Addiction Treatment Providers. Dr. Kevin McCauley also continues to assist pilots with substance use disorders through his collaboration with the Air Line Pilots Association's HIMS Program.

Currently, Dr. Kevin McCauley travels between the U.S mainland and his home in Honolulu, Hawaii, where he lives with his wife, Kristine, who teaches third grade at the Honolulu Waldorf School.

The Co-Occurring Conference Coalition of personnel from local service providers, wishes to gratefully acknowledge our area agencies for their support in keeping this year's attendance fees minimal. Development and promotional assistance have been donated by Addiction Treatment Services, Catholic Human Services, Centra Wellness Network, Forest View Hospital, Munson Health Services, Northern Lakes Community Mental Health Authority, and West Shore Community College. This conference is made possible through community and agency collaboration.

The Conference

The Co-Occurring Conference Coalition proudly presents its 21st annual conference on working with clients with co-occurring disorders. A person with a co-occurring disorder is someone who has one or more co-existing mental illnesses in addition to substance use or substance dependence disorders.

Educational Goals

The last twenty years produced an explosion of understanding not only of addiction (Substance Use Disorder) but how brains enable human capacities such as valuation, decision-making and social cognition. Addiction shows us how the brain constructs pleasurable experiences, what happens when this process goes wrong, and why this can have a dramatic impact in our ability to make proper choices. Early recovery can be a frightening time, but several groups of professionals have excellent success guiding people through the first year of sobriety and into long-term remission. This is the exciting new area of Recovery management – the philosophy of organizing coordinated, integrated support systems around people seeking sobriety to help them begin, maintain and strengthen their recovery. Dr. Kevin McCauley describes his experience observing the behaviors adopted and challenges faced and overcoming the most difficult part of addiction.

Educational Credits

Application has been approved for 6.0 Michigan Certification Board for Addiction Professionals (MCBAP, specific to substance use) credits, 6.0 Michigan Social Work (BSW/MSW) CEUs and 6.0 Michigan Board of Nursing credits. All sessions must be attended and an evaluation submitted to be eligible for credit.
