

Information and Referral

Connecting people with resources that can help them

There are many resources in the community—with varying programs, services, changing availability, eligibility requirements, and costs.

Our staff is knowledgeable about community resources and stands ready to discuss your needs or the needs of someone for whom you are caring. We can provide you with contact information to access services on your own or we can make the connections to the needed services on your behalf.

When you don't know where to turn, please contact us. We will help you find answers and make connections.

What we provide

Reliable information and timely assistance in accessing services.

Who is eligible

Anyone and everyone in the community is eligible for this free service.

What do I need to do to get this help?
